“We never forget that we are here to help our clients and fulfill their legal needs,” says Attorney Jeffrey Matsen of Bohm, Matsen, Kegel & Aguilera LLP. “We know that we maintain our clients’ trust and confidence by our performance.” Attorney Matsen’s knowledge, professionalism, responsiveness and integrity have vaulted him to the top of his field, culminating in his recent designation by Worth Magazine as one of America’s top 100 attorneys.

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS From startup to tax planning to mergers and acquisitions, business entities need expert legal support that is tailored to their own unique needs. Jeffrey Matsen is a master at forming and organizing partnerships and companies of every size and kind, and leading them through the legal, tax and transactional landscape of today’s complex business world. His track record of success makes him the attorney of choice for hundreds of businesses in Southern California and around the country.

ASSET PROTECTION Individuals as well as companies need to aggressively protect their assets from exposure to potential liabilities. With his rich knowledge and network of resources, Attorney Matsen can help clients reduce or even eliminate these risks. His skill in the use of domestic and offshore trusts, cutting-edge tax savings devices and sophisticated marital property planning ensures his clients the optimum protection for their wealth and property.

“ONE OF AMERICA’S TOP 100 ATTORNEYS” – WORTH MAGAZINE

ESTATE PLANNING Everyone wants to be confident that their estates will pass on safely, intact, and according to their wishes. Attorney Matsen’s years of experience, sophisticated skills and top professional standing give his clients the assurance they need. Whether drafting wills and trusts, administering estates or guiding executors through probate, Attorney Matsen has helped hundreds of clients preserve their valued property for the next generation.

SUPER LAWYER Jeffrey Matsen has made himself into a valuable resource for the legal profession, writing and publishing extensively on business and estate planning, and sharing his expertise with the next generation as a Professor of Law. He also bears the Martindale-Hubbell directory’s AV rating — its highest for both competence and ethics. “My experience and background allow me to ferret out the principal issues and matters of concern,” he says. This long experience pays dividends to his clients. “I have been there and done that — and the result is effective and meaningful service for my clients.”

Attorney Matsen is happily married to his wife, Susan, and they have seven wonderful children.
